Report on Plantation of Saplings

The whole world is facing the problem of global warming. Trees are the primary source for producing the oxygen in our surroundings. They absorb oxygen and give out carbon dioxide.

On 17th January, 2020, The Yenepoya Institute of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management, Balmatta, successfully planted saplings to observe Swachhata Pakhwada 2020, with the National Service Scheme (NSS) at the college premises. It was attended by Dr. Parvadhavardhini Gopalakrishnan, Principal, Ms Naseem Banu, administrator, Ms Shalini Sequeira and Mr Niyaz P, NSS program officer, faculty and more than 50 student volunteers.

The event began with the welcome speech by the Principal. In her message, she motivated the volunteers to plant trees and protect the environment by being responsible citizens of society.

The Principal's speech was followed by planting of saplings namely aloe vera and snake plant which absorb high amount of carbon dioxide. The saplings were planted by the Principal along with the administrator, faculty and the student volunteers.

Merin Roy, I BBA (Aviation and Logistics), compered the program and Mirza IBad Baig, NSS leader, II BCom proposed the vote of thank
