

Report on “Right Personality for Aviation Professionals to build Global Career” held at YIASCM

The Yenepoya Institute of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management, Balmatta, organised a guest lecture on February 7th, 2020 for the First year BBA (Aviation and Logistics) and Bcom (Aviation and Logistics) students on the topic “Right Personality for Aviation Professionals to build Global Career-Importance of ABC (Attitude, Behaviour and Communication)”. Dr Guru Tej COA-Test Prep and Coach-Reskilling Programs Wizdom Ed, and Dr Fransisca Tej Founder and MD Wizdom Ed, was the guest speaker.

Ms.Yashaswini student of I BBA (A&L) welcomed and gave a brief introduction of the guest speakers.

First, Dr Guru Tej began the talk by explaining about the personality of people; The way we sit, our posture everything defines a personality. He put forward analytical questions which made students think outside the box. Then, he spoke about how handshakes define the different personalities of people. He even explained how people wear masks in different situations. He conducted a personality assessment for the students which made students understand their individual personality; how to work on Attitude, Behaviour and the Communication so that the students will be industry ready. Dr Fransisca Tej concluded the talk with a moral story.

The session was enlightening and inspiring to the students and they were overwhelmed by the knowledge and the insightful presentation of the speakers.

Dr Parvadhavardhini Gopalakrishnan - The principal YIASCM, felicitated the guest speakers with a memento as a token of gratitude.

Ms Sharon Sarah Joseph student BBA (A&L), proposed the vote of thanks.
