Report on Swachhata Pledge

The Yenepoya Institute of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management is one of the fledgling institutes of the Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) and hence provides a contemporary and futuristic experience of teaching and learning. The degree courses offered are carefully selected to meet the requirement of a very special niche of aspiring students like you. The millennial movement has brought into focus degrees related to the discipline of humanities and economics especially connected to the services sector driven by the macro and micro economic environment. In this context, courses addressing big data analytics, commerce, aviation, tourism, travel and hospitality are the options from which you have selected to obtain holistic aptitudes towards your chosen degree. We have total student strength of 994.

Swachhata Pakhwada, 2020 activities commenced at our institution on 16th January 2020 at the Yendurance, Deralakatte with a vision to mainstream swachhata activities across the Higher Educational Institutions of India. The objective of it was a fortnight of focus on Clean India. This event commenced with the student installation program followed by the administering of the Swachhata Pledge by Dr. Parvardhavardhini Gopalakrishnan, Principal, YIASCM along with Dr. Shareena P, Vice-Principal, faculty and the students. This pledge was taken to remain committed towards cleanliness and devote time to it. 700 students attended this program.
